

Agenda

START	TITLE	SPEAKERS
09:25	Registration & Coffee
10:00	Opening remarks	SPEAKER: David Lyscom , Chief Executive, ISC
10:15	Why independence is vital	CHAIR: David Lyscom , Chief Executive, ISC SPEAKER: Lord Patten of Barnes , Chancellor, University of Oxford Session sponsored by  your safety-our business ds-healthandsafety.com
10:45	How Government economic policy will affect the sector	CHAIR: Vicky Tuck , Vice Chairman, ISC SPEAKER: David Verey CBE , Former CEO and Chairman, Lazard Brothers & Co Session sponsored by  RICKERBYS LLP solicitors
11:25	Coffee
11:50	Independent schools in the media	CHAIR: Alexandra Beynon , Head of Press, ISC SPEAKER: James Westhead , Former BBC Education correspondent, Director External Relations, Teach First Session sponsored by
12:35	Lunch & Networking

13:50	Education - what policy successes and failures over the last forty years might teach the next government	CHAIR: Rudolf Elliott Lockhart, Head of Research & Intelligence, ISC PANEL: Anastasia de Waal, Head of Family & Education, Civitas Julian Astle, Director, Centre Forum Rachel Wolf, Director, New Schools Network Session sponsored by
14:40	The ISC Manifesto: What independent schools expect from the next Government	SPEAKER: Dame Judith Mayhew Jonas , Chairman, ISC
15:00	Coffee
15:20	On the campaign trail: General Election forum	CHAIR: David Lyscom, Chief Executive, ISC PANEL: Diana Johnson MP, Parliamentary Undersecretary of State for Schools Nick Gibb MP, Conservative Shadow Minister (Schools), Children, Schools and Families David Laws MP, Liberal Democrat Shadow Secretary of State for Children, Schools & Families
16:15	If life required a tick list, what should we put in the box?	CHAIR: Dame Judith Mayhew Jonas, Chairman, ISC SPEAKER: Camila Batmanghelidjh, Founder, The Kids Company Session sponsored by
16:35	Close	